Location

Representative Address in the Center of Prague

The Na Příkopě 15 building, which houses the main retail branch of Zara in the Czech Republic, stands in a bustling business location on the border between Old Town and New Town, just a few steps from the Metro (Můstek and Náměstí Republiky stations) as well as multiple tram stations. The close surroundings offer a full array of services and amenities, such as restaurants and cafes, banks, hotels, and the central post office. Na Příkopě Street, linking Wenceslas Square with Republic Square, is lined with headquarters and branches of many leading Czech and international companies.
